3rd Saturdays Concerts Series About to Start

Douglasville, Georgia – The Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County departs from the past pattern of three Saturday free concerts at the O’Neal Plaza Stage and is now running the spring and fall concerts together as the 3rd Saturdays of each month, May –Aug.

A diverse array of music, only similar in the joy they bring, will be showcased. “With the first four concerts we wanted to celebrate our Downtown Douglasville life, starting with The Geeks, a great party band right after our biggest party, Taste of Douglasville,” said Davina Grace Hill, Executive Director of the CAC. “June’s concert will feature Kharisma Funkmatic Band, referencing Wednesday Wind-downs and the weekly jazz that series offers. July brings the joyous sounds of a traditional New Orleans style second-line band with the Wasted Potential Brass Band, in honor of our great restaurants, Gumbeaux’s and Gabe’s Downtown. August brings Irish Bred into focus with Keltic Kudzu, a Celtic folk/rock ensemble infused with Southern charm.”

Septembers and October’s concerts will shift focus and be children’s concerts, featuring musicians who specialize in music for families and children.

On Saturday, May 16th Taste of Douglasville festivities start at 11AM and while they end at 5pm, a The Geeks concert outdoors at O’Neal Plaza will follow at 7pm.

Atlanta’s Party Rock Heroes, The Geeks, wear goofy costumes and create a fun and rockin' stage show and have performed at various Atlanta festivals presented by Atlanta Beer Festivals, Rock 100.5 and USA Entertainment. The Geeks have a knack for consistently delivering a fun-filled, action-packed, party-goer experience every time they take the stage, whether they are in superhero capes or USS Enterprise shirts! Their Douglasville concert is at O’Neal stage from 7-9pm and its free.
