Douglasville, Georgia – The Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County celebrates one of the world’s fastest growing art forms – photography – with recent works by members of the Sweetwater Camera Club during the months of October and November. Hosted by the Douglas County Chapter of the American Business Women’s Association (A.B.W.A.), the free opening reception will be held on Thursday, October 6th from 6 until 8 p.m., at the Cultural Arts Council. Exhibiting more than 70 photographs by the group, the exhibit will remain on view through November 17th. Gallery admission, tours, and receptions are free. If you’re interested in a special gallery tour, please call the CAC to schedule an appointment – 770.949.2787.

The Sweetwater Camera Club meets the second Thursday of each month. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and meetings begin at 7:00 p.m. in Room 1 of the Douglasville Conference Center, 6700 Church Street, in downtown Douglasville. The purpose of SCC is to share and promote photography for enjoyment and recreation. This large enthusiastic group conducts monthly photo contests on different themes and presents expert photographers as guest speakers at each meeting. The Sweetwater Camera Club conducts several field trips per month and stages local and regional exhibitions throughout the year. The club presents a group show of recent works by its members every other year at the Cultural Arts Council, and its individual members are often included in other exhibits throughout the year as well. This year’s show includes many deservedly well-established local photographers and also introduces fascinating pieces by newcomers to the community and the club.
