

Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 2, 2016

For more information:
Call Davina Grace Hill
770-949-ARTS(2787)

Big Chicken Barbershop Chorus to Perform in Douglasville

Douglasville, Georgia – On Sunday, April 3rd the Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County will present the Big Chicken Barbershop Chorus in concert at the 1st Presbyterian Church in Douglasville at 3pm. Tickets to this family –friendly performance of a cappella music and g-rated humor are $18 ($15 for CAC members) and may now be purchased at CAC, through the website www.atsdouglas.org or from CAC Board members.

“The CAC wanted to promote more performance opportunities in Douglasville and jumped at the chance when the Big Chicken Chorus was suggested,” said Davina Grace Hill, Executive Director of CAC. “The close harmonies, well known songs and hilarious antics make barbershop concerts a thoroughly entertaining event.”

Formed in 1986, in Marietta, the Big Chicken Chorus (BCC) is a male chorus that sings four part a cappella harmony in the style of the close harmony sung by Barbershop Quartets. Their performances feature inspirational songs, patriotic songs, and a variety of songs from yesteryear. As the name might suggest, they are serious about having fun and providing an element of laughter and joviality in their performances.

Over the years, the Big Chicken Chorus has entertained appreciative audiences at the Fabulous Fox Theatre, the Atlanta Civic Center, the Georgia Fine Arts Center, Symphony Hall, the Georgia Dome, the Georgia Pacific "Art in the Heart" series, the "Cobb County Jubilee Arts Alliance" series, the Robert Ferst Center at Georgia Tech, the Rialto Theatre, and all over the Southeast.

The Chorus has also performed throughout the Southeast and in many of the nation's largest cities, including: Anaheim, Denver, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Louisville, Miami, Nashville, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Salt Lake City, and San Francisco. The Chorus has also performed internationally in Canada and England.

Under the direction of Lars Grevstad, the Big Chicken Chorus continues the Chapter's proud tradition of pursuing musical excellence and continuous improvement, all while keeping the Society's spirit of Brotherhood, Family, and Harmony alive and thriving!

The Douglasville concert is made possible thanks to the generosity of the 1st Presbyterian Church on Campbellton St. The Church's willingness to allow CAC and the BCC to hold the concert in their acoustically excellent sanctuary is gratefully appreciated.. Added Hill, “in keeping with the barbershop spirit, it could be said that it is a ‘pitch-perfect’ place to perform!”

The Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/ Douglas County, located at 8652 Campbellton Street in historic downtown Douglasville, Georgia, is open Mondays through Fridays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For directions, tickets, or more information, visit www.artsdouglas.org or contact the Cultural Arts Council at 770-949-2787.

####

The mission of the Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County is to nurture, guide and stimulate the enjoyment of and participation in the arts among Douglas County residents by providing an atmosphere conducive to the arts, broadening the spectrum of quality exhibits and performances available to the community, and fostering individual interactions with the arts through a wide range of satellite groups. The programs and activities of the Cultural Arts Council are supported in part by the City of Douglasville and the Douglas County Board of Commissioners.