Founded in 1986 to promote the arts in Douglas County, Georgia, the Cultural Arts Council Douglasville/Douglas County (CAC) is a multi-disciplinary arts non-profit organization and gallery that showcases visual arts in the Roberts-Mozley House, a National Historic Registry home built in 1901. The six show rooms and foyer allow for an exhibit space in a unique & cozy environment. In the National Juried Arts Show (NJAS), the CAC showcases a wide variety of high-quality art from around the country, bringing a national perspective to our community, located just 30 minutes outside of Atlanta.

Film, video, molded or kit items are not eligible for this exhibit. Reproductions of artwork will not be accepted. Work accepted must remain on view for the entire exhibit, no exceptions.

COMMISSION We love our artists. Unlike many galleries that take 50% or more, the CAC only takes 25% commission on all works sold during the exhibit. We also cover tax, so artists take home 75% profit from all sales. Please remember to price your work accordingly. Checks on sold artwork will be mailed out within 15 business days after the exhibit closes.

LIABILITY The CAC insures works on our property. Insurance in transit is the artist's sole responsibility and we urge all shipped works be insured by the artist.
